FAQs and Need-to-Knows for Tickets

How do print or download my tickets?

Click here for a step-by-step tutorial on how to get your single game tickets!

What does open seating mean/Where is the open seating section?

Open Seating means just that. Open! Over 80% of our ballpark is open seating including all of the green bench seating in the covered main grandstand, first base metal grandstand, the covered top deck level of the right field party decks, and the picnic tables or bleachers along the third base line. Open seating is first come, first serve!

Where are the 1st and 3rd Base Platforms/Right Field Deck?

The 1st and 3rd Base Platforms are reserved for groups and located under the covered grandstands. The 1st Base Platform is located on the first base side. The 3rd Base Platform is located on the 3rd base side.

The right field party deck is located down the first base side of the stadium. The top level is open to the public and has a full-service bar. The lower two levels are reserved for groups but have concession stands available to the public.

Where is the accessibility ramp?

The accessibility ramp for the seating bowl behind home plate is located on the third base side with reserved handicap seating on the first row of either side of the seating bowl – outside Section A and Section M. There is also a handicap ramp for the metal bleachers is on the first base side with first come, first served seating.

It's raining! Is the game still on?

The show must go on! We will always plan to open our gates to you and entertain. In the event that the game is called due to severe weather, you can find out official rain-out info on our social media.
